Papyrus appoints a new Director to the Board

On behalf of the Board of Directors of Papyrus Australia Ltd (PPY), the Executive Chair Mr Al Jawhari is pleased to announce the appointment of a new non-Executive Director Mr Brad Lemmon, to the Papyrus Board.

Mr. Lemmon brings to PPY over 30 years of experience and a range of skills from the construction materials, mining services, waste recovery and recycling industries, spanning operations and logistics, commercialization, capability integration across business pillars and progressing strategy to execution. With a strong governance focus, Mr Lemmon has led a 500 strong multi-disciplined workforce through a major transformation via a strategic capital investment program to deliver an efficient, sustainable and profitable footprint across a national network.

With key strengths in attracting strategic capital investment to activate growth opportunities and building high performing teams, Mr Lemmon is a highly effective business leader with international trade experience which will benefit PPY in our next stage of growth and expansion.

Holding formal qualifications in Strategic Economic Analysis & Management and a graduate from the Stanford Graduate School of Business, Mr Lemmon has developed, implemented and led strategic reviews to modernise operations and aggressive cost management and innovative commercial solutions.

Mr Jawhari said 'I warmly welcome Mr Lemmon to the Board, to harness his expertise as Papyrus accelerates its focus on global technology commercialisation and expansion, and in securing multiple global revenue streams'.
